March 2016

“Spiritual growth is a process of learning to love, so Peter speaks about growing in God’s triumphant grace and becoming fully mature as those who share the divine nature with Christ (2 Peter 1:4 Passion). It begins with faith and virtue but it ends with love. Our diligence to hold to our faith will be rewarded in time with a greater love for God and for his people.” Letters of Love, Brian Simmons

Yes and Amen! Such Grace we are given as we learn how to love unconditionally. We are strengthened with endurance to remove ourselves. To remove the “I want”, to remove our selfishness for our own gains and replace it so we may love intently. To love intentionally. Accept the struggles for triumph follows. Signs and wonders follows each of Our Fathers children when we love intentionally whom God loves. Love who God cherishes. When we seek God’s heart then we too will gain insight to how to others love with passion and grace.

God is pure light. You will never find even a trace of darkness in him. If we claim that we share life with him, but keep walking in the realm of darkness, we’re fooling ourselves and not living the truth. But if we keep living in the pure light that surrounds him, we share unbroken fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, continually cleanses us from all sin. 1 John 1:5b-7 Passion

Walking with the Lord requires continuous relationship communicating with Jesus in our Daily life.

And now, dear children, remain in him, so that when he is revealed we may have joyful confidence and not be ashamed when we stand before him at his appearing. 1 John 2:28

Paul’s Life for Christ

<sup>20</sup>For I fully expect and hope that I will never be ashamed, but that I will continue to be bold for Christ, as I have been in the past. And I trust that my life will bring honor to Christ, whether I live or die. Philippians 1:20 (NLT)

But it is no shame to suffer for being a Christian. Praise God for the privilege of being called by his name! 1 Peter 4:16 (NLT)
