“Share each other’s burdens
and in this way obey the law of Christ.” Galatians 6:2 NLT

Burdens. We all have them.

A weight here. A care there.

A child who isn't following the Lord.
A spouse who has health problems.
A friend who recently lost their job.

Burdens? Yes, we all have them.

But...what do we do with them?

Some of us want to hide them.

*Burdens? Me? No way!

Some of us want to hoard them.

*Burdens? Me? Absolutely!
Yes, I have burdens...and I like them.
No help wanted here.*

Sometimes we hide them.

Sometimes we hoard them.

But, the Bible tells us to share them.

Share them? Are you sure?

Yep. Share them.

Sharing a burden doesn't mean hiding it.
Sharing a burden doesn't mean hoarding it.

It doesn't mean glorifying it or minimizing it.

Sharing a burden,
I mean really sharing a burden,
simply means being real.

It means asking for and accepting help.
It means admitting that we can't do it all on our own.
It means realizing that God put us on this earth,
together, for a reason.
It means dying to our ourselves—our pride, our fear—
and learning to become, really become, the Body of Christ.

“Bear one another’s burdens and so fulfill the law of Christ.” Galatians 6:2 ESV

Carrying some heavy burdens today?

I urge you, dear friends,
not to glorify them
or minimize them,
but to simply share them.

Share them, honestly,
allowing your brothers
and sisters in Christ
to bear them with you.

Share them, honestly,
allowing your brothers
and sisters in Christ
to be the Body of Christ, to you.

“Dear brothers and sisters, I urge you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to join in my struggle by praying to God for me.
Do this because of your love for me,
given to you by the Holy Spirit.” Romans 15:30 NLT

“For just as the body is one and has many members,
and all the members of the body, though many,
are one body, so it is with Christ.
God has so composed the body...that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another.
If one member suffers, all suffer together;
if one member is honored, all rejoice together.”
from 1 Corinthians 12:12-26 ESV

“Share each other’s burdens
and in this way obey the law of Christ.” Galatians 6:2 NLT
