“The Spirit of the Sovereign Lord is on me,
because the Lord has anointed me
to proclaim good news to the poor.

He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted,
and to proclaim freedom for the captives
and release from darkness for the prisoners,

to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor
and the day of vengeance of our God,

to comfort all who mourn,
and provide for those who grieve in Zion—

to bestow on them a crown of beauty instead of ashes,
the oil of joy instead of mourning,
and a garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair.

They will be called oaks of righteousness,
a planting of the Lord for the display of His splendor.”

Isaiah 61:1-3 NIV

Oh, what blessings are found in these verses:
Comfort, provision, beauty and joy.

God is blessing:
He is healing, comforting and setting His people free.

And we are becoming who He has purposed us to be:
Oaks of righteousness, plantings of the Lord for the display of His splendor!

Come, let us rejoice in that today!
