Deliverance from slavery.
Miraculous escape through the sea.

The people of God had just been released from oppressive slavery and saved from certain death.

And their response was:
praise, worship, singing and exaltation.

*Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the Lord:
"I will sing to the Lord,
for He is highly exalted.
Both horse & driver
He has hurled into the sea.
The Lord is my strength and my defense;
He has become my salvation.
He is my God, and I will praise Him,
my father's God, and I will exalt Him.
The Lord is a warrior;
The Lord is His name.
Your right hand, Lord,
was majestic in power.
Your right hand, Lord,
shattered the enemy.
Who is like You, Lord,
majestic in holiness,
awesome in glory,
working wonders?"* (from Exodus 15)

Praise. Worship. Awestruck adoration.

What is it that God has brought you through?
What is it that God is bringing you through?

It may not be as dramatic as the Red Sea.

Maybe its a health issue or relationship problem that God has brought you through or delivered you from.

Maybe its joy in the midst of the circumstance and the peace of knowing that God is right there with you, fighting your battle for you and comforting you along the way.

Whatever it is that God has done for you in the past,
or is walking you through right now,
take the time to praise Him today!

Sing a song to the Lord!

Sing a song—your own song— proclaiming His miraculous wonders in your life!

Write it. Sing it. Proclaim it. Exclaim it.

God, You are highly exalted!
You are my strength and defense!
You are my salvation, and I will exalt You!
