

Dear Friends and Family,
Happy Easter from our house to yours!

Health update from Peg:

We are praising the Lord that I came through the surgeries and am on the mend. I still have some healing to do and I need to regain my strength but the worst is over. Thank you for your faithful prayers. Please keep praying that the wound on my back will heal. I will continue to post updates here: www.caringbridge.org/visit/pegshrum

Ministry update:

I am working on checking Exodus for a people group in Amazonia. I am also supervising the process of getting exegetical helps for translators into Portuguese. That is a temporary position until they find a native speaker to fill the job.

Jeff's team has finished preparing the sixty-one training videos that help translators and consultants produce better translations in less time. They will now put them into Portuguese, Spanish, French, Chinese (2 kinds), Russian and Indonesian. Jeff is in charge of getting them into Portuguese. To do that he will change his computer interface to Portuguese and remake each video using Portuguese examples instead of the English ones, then he gets the scripts translated and records a native speaker reading the scripts.

Personal update:

We are thrilled that Maggie Jo will be graduating from LeTourneau University on May 5th. Celebrate God's provision with us.

We are planning to visit New Jersey and Indiana in May/June as my health allows. We hope to see many of you who have been praying and giving so faithfully.

Until all have heard,

Jeff, Peg and Maggie Jo
