That You May Know

And may you have the power to understand, as all God's people should, how wide, how long, how high, and how deep His love is. May you experience the love of Christ, though it is too great to understand fully. Then you will be made complete with all the fullness of life and power that comes from God.

Ephesians 3:18-19 NLT

As I sit here today, my child sick at home, my Dad undergoing a biopsy, I want to offer a simple prayer...

I know many of you reading this are going through tough situations. Maybe it's your health. Maybe it's your job or your finances or your family. Situations that seem scary. Situations that seem out of control.

And although most of the time you trust, there are also times when you wonder, when you wonder, "Why God? If You really love me, why don't You fix this? Why don't You change this? Why don't You do what I'm asking You to do?"

I'm not here to tell you why. I don't know why. But what I do know is this: God loves you. God loves you more than you could ever conceive. God loves you more than you could ever imagine.

And He's working. Sometimes it's visible. Sometimes it's not. But He's working. He hasn't forgotten you and He isn't ignoring you.

And so my prayer for you is this: That you would know - truly know - and that you would believe - truly believe - that God loves you. God. Loves. You.

In the midst of the pain. In the midst of the questions. He's there. He's right there. Holding your hand. Wiping your tears.

The God who created the universe is right beside you. Walking with you. Talking to you. Listening to you.

Why? Because He loves you.

[The Lord answers] Can a mother forget the baby at her breast and have no compassion on the child she has borne? Though she may forget, I will not forget you! See, I have engraved you on the palms of My hands. Isaiah 49:15-16

This is love - not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son as a sacrifice to take away our sins. 1 John 4:10

I pray that you...will have the power to understand the greatness of Christ's love - how wide and how long and how high and how deep that love is. Christ's love is greater than anyone can ever know, but I pray that you will be able to know that love... from Ephesians 3:15-21 NCV
