No Exaggeration

There is one God and one Mediator who can reconcile God and humanity - the man Christ Jesus. He gave His life to purchase freedom for everyone. This is the message God gave to the world at just the right time. And I have been chosen as a preacher and apostle to teach the Gentiles this message about faith and truth. I'm not exaggerating - just telling the truth. 1 Timothy 2:5-7

There Paul was, writing to Timothy, reminding him of the truth of the good news of salvation for all mankind and reminding him of how he's been chosen by God to teach and preach this good news, and he ends his thought in a curious way. He tells Timothy: I'm not exaggerating - just telling the truth.

And as I ponder these words, I think about you...and I think about me.

How many times have we heard truths that with our natural, humanistic mindset seem unbelievable. Seem too good to be true. Seem like an exaggeration.

Maybe it's the good news that God loves us with an unconditional, everlasting, never-ending love. And that nothing we can do or not do will ever remove us from His hand.

Maybe it's the good news that God specifically chose us, before the world began, to be His kids and to bring His kingdom here on the earth.

Maybe it's the good news that we are created in the very image of God. That we have the mind of Christ and that we have been predestined to do amazing things in and through Him!

Maybe it's the good news that...

Oh my friends! Let's renew our minds! Let's take God at His word! Let's not think of all the amazing blessings, all the amazing inheritance we have in and through Christ, as an exaggeration! It's not an exaggeration. It is truth. The truth.

We are princes and princesses, sons and daughters of the King. And that's no exaggeration!

I have loved you with an everlasting love. Jeremiah 31:3

I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one can snatch them away from Me, for my Father has given them to Me, and He is more powerful than anyone else. No one can snatch them from the Father's hand. John 10:28-29

And I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from God's love. Neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither our fears for today nor our worries about tomorrow-not even the powers of hell can separate us from God's love. No power in the sky above or in the earth below-indeed, nothing in all creation will ever be able to separate us from the love of God that is revealed in Christ Jesus our Lord. Romans 8:38-39

You are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's special possession, that you may declare the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His wonderful light. 1 Peter 2:9
