Be Still and Know

Be still.

Oh, how difficult it seems sometimes just to be still!

But, we think, be still?
How will anything get done if we are still?

I mean, there are the demands of life:
The things to do.
The people to see.
The situations to deal with.
There are the things we want fixed and the people we want changed.

How on earth can we be still?

Yet, that's exactly what God says:
Be still.
Be still and know that I am God.

And there's the key:
Be still and know that I am God.

I am God.
Not you.
Not your problems.
Not your circumstances.
Not the people around you.

I. Me.
The One who created you.
The One who formed you.
The One who loves you and delights in you.
The One who never sleeps & never slumbers.
The One who rejoices over you with singing and whose face shines upon you.
The One who loves you with an all-consuming, everlasting, never-changing love.

I. Me.
I am God.

Yes...God says: Be still.
Be still and know that I am God.

Though the earth give way
and the mountains fall into the sea.
Though the waters roar and foam
and the mountains quake from their surging.
Though things may not be the way you'd like them
and situations may seem overwhelming.
Though it looks like God is not there or not caring or not answering or not moving.
Though it seems tough or scary or unfair.

In all these things, God says:
Be still. Be still and know that I am God!

Oh, my friends, He is God!
He is God and He's got this!

Whatever your this is, He's got it!
And He's got you...right in the palm of His hand.

*The Lord Almighty is with us;
the God of Jacob is our fortress.
He says, "Be still, and know that I am God;
I will be exalted among the nations,
I will be exalted in the earth."* from Psalm 46
