GOD'S PATIENCE AND KINDNESS LEADS PEOPLE TO REPENTANCE. ROMANS 2:4

I've been struck lately with this whole idea of invitation.

Our God is a God of invitation.

Whether its giving, loving, obeying or worshipping, our God never forces us.

He doesn't force us.

He doesn't manipulate us.

And He doesn't coerce us.

Instead, He invites us.

He invites us to love Him.

He invites us to worship Him.

He invites us to get to know Him.

Him. God. In all His goodness. In all His glory. In all His ways.

He invites us.

Into a relationship. A give and take, love and be loved, know and be known relationship.

He invites us.

Into a life well-lived. A life with purpose. A life with destiny. A life with meaning.

He invites us.

Into joy. A joy that's full. A joy that's powerful. A joy that's contagious.

He invites us.

Into peace. A peace that's all-encompassing. A peace that's everlasting.

He invites us.

Into worship. Worship that's real. Worship that's true. Worship that's powerful.

He invites us.

Into worship. Worship that's real. Worship that's true. Worship that's powerful.

He invites us.

Into influence. Influence into families. Influence into cities. Influence into nations.

Oh my friends, our God is a God of invitation!

Whatever it is that God is inviting you into, whether it's a deeper trust in Him as you learn to give sacrificially or a more intimate walk with Him as you learn to give yourself to Him in worship, I pray that right now, you would see it. You would sense it. You would feel it.

The look of love. The outstretched hand. The invitation.

Come, all you who are thirsty, come to the waters; and you who have no money, come, buy and eat! Isaiah 55:1

Always be full of joy in the Lord. I say it again-rejoice! Let everyone see that you are considerate in all you do. Remember, the Lord is coming soon. Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank Him for all He has done. Then you will experience God's peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus.

And now, dear brothers and sisters, one final thing. Fix your thoughts on what is true, and honorable, and right, and pure, and lovely, and admirable. Think about things that are excellent and worthy of praise. Keep putting into practice all you learned and received from me - everything you heard from me and saw me doing. Then the God of peace will be with you. Philippians 4:4-8

The Spirit and the bride say, "Come." Let anyone who hears this say, "Come." Let anyone who is thirsty come. Let anyone who desires drink freely from the water of life. Revelation 22:17
