What Is Common To You

No temptation has overtaken you except what is common to mankind. And God is faithful; He will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, He will also provide a way out so that you can endure it. 1 Corinthians 10:13

What temptation is common to you? You know, that thing you seem to default to when things come up that you didn't foresee or you can't control?

For me, personally, it's been fear. And it has worked it's way out in different forms.

But as I've begun to heal, truly heal, I've begun to fear a lot less. I've begun to worry a lot less. And the times when I am tempted to worry and fear, I recognize it a lot sooner. What could have, in the past, been years, months or weeks of anxiety and doubt, has now become hours, minutes or even seconds.

What an amazing God we serve: One who heals. One who restores. One who makes all things new!

I don't know what temptation is common to you, personally, but I do know that, as Paul wrote in 1 Corinthians 10, God is faithful and He has provided the way out!

For me, it's renewing my mind. It's taking my thoughts captive. It's asking for help, when I need it and accepting help when it's offered. It's immersing myself in the truth of who God is and how much He loves me. And it's actually believing that what God says is really true.

Yes, God is changing me...from the inside out. He began a good work in me and He is faithfully completing it.

And I know He'll do the same for you!

In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus. Philippians 1:4-6
