You Are Loved

You know that feeling...when you know you're loved?

Like everything is good.
Like everything is right in the world.
Like you can do anything, be anything, conquer anything.

Like the sky is a little bluer and the clouds are a little whiter.

Like you can relax.
And breathe.
And be.

Be you. All of you.
No hiding.
No pretending.
You.

It may seem hard to imagine.
It may seem difficult to comprehend.

But you are loved.
Totally.
Completely.
All of you.

Not just a part.
Not just the parts that seem good.
Not just the parts that seem nice.
Not just the parts that seem presentable.
All of you.

You are loved.
You are chosen.
You are forgiven.

Let that truth sink in.

It may seem strange at first.
It may seem scary.
It may seem unbelievable.

But let it sink in.
Marinate in it.

The truth is, you are loved.
No matter what you did 10 years ago, 10 minutes ago, 10 seconds ago.
You are loved.

You can do nothing to cause God to love you more.
You can do nothing to cause God to love you less.

He loves you.
All the way. All the time.
He loves you.

God...loves...you.

I have loved you with an everlasting love; I have drawn you with unfailing kindness. from Jeremiah 31

I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the Lord's holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge - that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God. from Ephesians 3
