When All Hope Seems Lost

What do you do when all hope seems lost?

Do you run? Do you hide? Do you yell, cry or just get really...really...silent?

Whatever it is that you do when things get tough, allow me encourage you: Jesus isn't afraid of your emotions!

He created them.
He understands them.
And He felt them, too.

Yes, Jesus experienced every human emotion.

Pain? He felt it.
Abandonment? He experienced it.
Betrayal? He felt that, too.

Did He hide it? No. Did He pretend they didn't exist? Nope.

He felt and dealt with emotion.

How? By going to His Father.

Let's follow His example!

For we do not have a high priest who is unable to empathize with our weakness, but we have One who has been tempted in every way, just as we are - yet He did not sin. Let us then approach God's throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need. Hebrews 4:15-16 NIV

Feel like running today?
Run to the throne of your Father.

Feel like hiding?
Hide in His everlasting arms.

Feel like crying?
Cry out to the One who truly understands!

God, your Father, your Savior, your Healer, your King, is waiting.
Waiting to hear...from you.

Come to Me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.
Matthew 11:28 NIV
