God Loves You

You know that moment when you walk into your child's room, just to watch them sleep. Just to look at their face.

And you see your child, your precious child. And you're overwhelmed with love for them. They're not doing anything. They're not working or serving or even playing. They're simply being.

And yet you're overwhelmed with love, overwhelmed with joy, overwhelmed with knowing that this child, this precious child...is yours.

In those moments, I'm reminded of how our Heavenly Father, our Daddy, looks on us - on you and on me.

God, our God, is overwhelmed with deep, abiding, unconditional love for us - every moment of every day. Not just here and there. Not just when we're working or serving or doing. But every moment. Every moment.

God, your God, loves you. There's nothing you can do to cause Him to love you more. And there's nothing you can do to cause Him to love you less. He loves you with His all-consuming, never-ending, unconditional love. He loves you. All the way, all the time.

God loves you. You, His precious child. God loves you!

"I pray that you and all God's holy people will have the power to understand the greatness of Christ's love - how wide and how long and how high and how deep that love is. Christ's love is greater than anyone can ever know, but I pray that you will be able to know that love. Then you can be filled with the fullness of God." Ephesians 3:18-19 NCV

"I have loved you with an everlasting love; I have drawn you with unfailing kindness." from Jeremiah 31:3 NIV

"The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases; His mercies never come to an end." Lamentations 3:22 ESV
